DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 to 14, 22 and 23 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 to 15, 26 to 28 of copending Application No. 10/603,821. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the sole difference is the wavefront element. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use a wavefront element in the instant claims in order to increase the control over the separate beams from the laser improving the crystallization efficiency of the apparatus.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

17 to 20, 23 to 26 of copending Application No. 10/668,285. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the sole difference between the claims is the specific elements. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use the element of the instant claims in the broader claims of the copending application in order to create the beam profile that will enhance the crystallization.
